

THE BOSWELL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

SPRING 2020

To all Members

On March 2nd at Lichfield we were privileged to have Professor Gordon Turnbull from Yale University speak on James Boswell, Robert Burns and Alexander (Wee) Millar and The Battle for the Parish of Kilmaurs. Julia Bracewell came from Edinburgh and Rose-Ann Cuninghame from Ayrshire. We thank them for making the journey from north of the border and to other members who had to travel a distance.

Rose-Ann has graciously formed a small committee to organise a meeting on the Auchinlech Estate possibly on August 20th or 21st. Gordon Hoyle who started the Society had the meetings there in late August.

Richard and Marilyn Davies hosted Lichfield and Zandra O'Donnell and Roderick Boswell have kindly agreed to help serve on a committee there if needed. So hopefully the Society will continue to flourish in their kind hands.

I wish you well in these difficult times and hope you all keep safe and well.

Best wishes

Rose Boswell
